| at approximately 10:00 o'clock, maybe some time after |
| 10:00 that morning, my partner and I went to the area |
| of 117th and Princeton where we began just canvassing, |
| trying to talk to people, seeing if we could find |
| something that could aid us in our investigation. |

- Q And then did you then canvass the area?
 - A Yes, we did.
- Q Calling your attention, then, to approximately 4:15 in the afternoon of the same date, were you at Area 2 at this time?
 - A Yes, sir, I was.
- And did you have occasion, then, to meet a person now known to you to be Jerome Hendricks?
 - A Yes, I did.
- Q Could you look around the court, Detective, and see if you see Jerome Hendricks?
- A Jerome is seated with that multi-colored sweater and black shirt, hand on chin.
- MR. CASSIDY: Let the record reflect an in-court identification of the Defendant, your Honor.

б

| 1 | THE COURT: The record may so reflect. |
|----------|---|
| 2 | MR. CASSIDY: Q And did you talk to Mr. |
| 3 | Handricks? |
| 5 | A Yes, sir, I did. |
| 6 | Q And who was present for that conversation? |
| 7 | A Initially, at this time, myself, |
| 8 | Detactive Brownfield and Mr. Hendricks. |
| 9 | Q And where did the conversation take |
| 10 | place? |
| 11 | A The conversation took place in Interview |
| 12 | Room No. 1. |
| 14 | Q Which is in Area 2? |
| 15 | A Yes, sir. |
| 16 | Q And that would be approximately 4:15 |
| 17 | ?.m.q |
| 18 | A Yes. |
| 19 | Q Can you please tell the Judge how this |
| 20 21 | conversation then began? |
| 22 | A Basically after entering in the room, |
| 23 | I introduced myself and my partner to Mr. Hendricks |
| 24 | and informed him then of his rights and I did this |
| | from my POD hook. I holidays it is Down 70 |

| ' | Q Do you have your FOP book on you? |
|-----|---|
| 3 | A Yes. |
| 4 | Q Can you please produce it? |
| 5 | A Yes, sir. |
| 6 | Q Can you please read the rights as you |
| 7 | read them to Mr. Hendricks that day? |
| 8 | A I began by saying, do you understand |
| 9 | that you have the right to remain silent? And there |
| 10 | was no response, and I asked him, I said, could you |
| 11 | answer whether you understand after each right I |
| 13 | give you. |
| 14 | Q Did he respond? |
| 15 | A Yes, he did. He responded in the |
| 16 | affirmative. I don't recall if he used the |
| 17 | terminology "yeah," or "yes," but it was |
| 18 | affirmative. |
| 20 | I then said do you understand that |
| 21 | anything you say can and may be used against you in |
| 22 | Court or other proceedings. |
| 23 | I said do you understand that, again |
| 24 | he answered in the affirmative. |
| | I then said, do you understand you | have a right to have a lawyer before we ask you any questions and have him during questioning, and, again, Mr. Hendricks answered in the affirmative.
| - 1 | |

I then said, if you could not afford or otherwise obtain a lawyer and you want one, a lawyer will be appointed for you and we will not ask you any questions until he has been appointed.

Do you understand that? And he answered in the affirmative.

I then said if you decide to answer now with or without a lawyer, you still have the right to stop the questioning at any time or to stop the questioning for the purpose of consulting a lawyer, and he again answered in the affirmative.

I then said you may waive the right to advise of counsel and your right to remain silent and you may answer questions or make a statement without consulting a lawyer if you so desira.

Again, Mr. Hendricks answered in the affirmative.

I then asked him do you understand all of these rights that I have just read to you, he again said yes.

I said do you wish to answer questions at this time? He said yes.

O Then what happened?

A At this time I said, Jerome, I said my partner and I and everybody in this unit, the exact words I don't recall, but just that we had been checking your alibithat you gave us.

MS. PLACEK: Objection.

THE COURT: What is your objection?

MS. PLACEK: At this point it's a conclusion that he made.

THE COURT: This is a conversation, this is what he told and said to the Defendant. Whether or not there is substance or truth what he is telling the Defendant is another matter.

The objection is overruled.

THE WITNESS: He says we have been out in the street all day and the one alibi, alleged alibi that you gave, I said, is wrong. Detective Ryan had talked to him and it doesn't verif yyour account. 2 allegedly told Joanna Ryan that --

Detective Ryan, Judge.

6

THE COURT: That part of it is sustained.

7

MR. CASSIDY: Q So, basically, you told him you didn't balieve his story?

8 9

That is correct.

10

What, if anything, happened then?

11 12

I asked him if he was hungry and he said

MS. PLACEK: Objection. Conversation between 13 he was and I said, well, we will get something to 14

eat, because we were going to be working overtime

15

that day and I believe we got chicken, we ordered

16

18

I gave him cold water.

19

24

I said, Jerome, you haven't been telling us the truth, you are holding something back, and food and come at this time, he was eating.

I stopped asking him questions regarding the homicide investigation while I was eating, there was smalltalk about the weather and incidental things.

I then began, I said you know you haven't been telling us the truth, Jerome. He said you are right, he said, but my past, if I told the truth, my past would screw me up.

I said what do you mean? He said, well, you know I have been in the penitentiary, I just got out, I am on parole for rape now and people in the neighborhood saw me with the girl.

I said what are you driving at,

Jerome? And he stated that it was either, I believe it was Wednesday or Thursday or Tuesday or Wednesday, which wouldhave been the 3rd or 4th of August that he was in the rear yard and he had been cleaning up brnaches and trash that was in the back yard and next door to him there is an abandoned garage and he noted a cat on this abandoned garage and when he got near the garage he said there was a very strong odor emitting from this garage.

He says that he opened the service door to this garage, looked inside and that he observed the girl that was missing laying in the corner.

He then said that he entered the garage, he went up to her, he may have touched her, he moved some bags but he couldn't tell anybody about it because of his past, the fact that he was on parole for rape and I said, Jerome, I still think you are holding something back, I said did you ever have sex with her, and he sort of started thinking, didn't want to answer and then he said --

MS. PLACEK: Objection.

THE COURT: The objection is sustained.

MR. CASSIDY: Q Well, after you asked him the question about whether or not he had sex with the girl or not, did he answer your question immediately?

MS. PLACEK: Objection.

THE COURT: Overruled.

THE WITNESS: As to having sex with the girl?

MR. CASSIDY: Q Did he answer that question immediately?

A No, he did not, sir.

Q How long -- Did he eventually say anything after you asked him that question?

Did you tell him anything that he could have possibly done as far as tests to the victim?

A Yas.

Yas.

Q What was that?

A I told him that the young girl would be posted and the results of an autopsy could and would indicate possibly the presence of sperm if she had sexual intercourse.

Q Did you tell him this before you left the room?

A I believe I did, yes.

Q Okay.

And then what happened?

A I think it was somewhere around 7:00, a little after 7:00, the door opened and Jerome pointed to me, "John," he said, "I want to talk to you."

- Q So what did you do, then?
- A I says fine, I walked in the room and --
- Q Did you go in by yourself?

A Yes. He didn't want to talk to Steve, he just wanted to talk to me and I went in the room. I closed the door, I said is there anything you want to tell ma? He says yeah, but he says can I get in trouble, the exact words I don't recall, he inquired could he get in trouble if he admitted to having sex with the girl and I believe I responded to him by saying in all probability, you are going to have some problems.

With that, he then said that, well, he said, well, I did have sex with her and he went on to say that on Monday, which would have been the first that he had left his home and he had met the girl, Denise, and she had made a pass towards him and told him how much she liked him and began hugging and kissing him and pulled him into her gangway.

Once in the gangway, he says she squeezed me and hugged and kissed me and took me in the back yard and he described the back yard as an abandoned car alongside a fence and he says that Denise lead him to this location, that Denise then dropped her pants and he dropped his pants to his ankles and the two of them engaged in sexual relations.

And I asked him if he had ejaculated in her, and he said no, he did not, that he withdrew and then I told him, you know, Jerome, I explained to you before, I says the girl is going to be posted in an autopsy, in all probability it would reveal that there is a presence of sparm in her and I think it was at this point where he was saying if I tell you what really happened now, you won't believe me, and I says, Jerome, all we want is the truth, and he says, well, let me -- again he says let me think about it. I said fine, I will be outside the door, and I left him alone in the room and I left.

Now, after some time or a short period of time, did anything happen, then?

Well, in between when I left the room the А second time, I had made, you know, the powers to be and the other investigating officers aware of my conversations and what he had been telling me, each time telling me a little bit more, little bit more, and it was some time, I would say closer to 8:30 in the evening, that he, again, called me and at that time I had just got done explaining to Detective Joanna Ryan that Jerome was coming around.

MR. PLACEK: Objection to what he said to Joanne Ryan. It's irrelevant at this point. Also hearsay at this time.

So Joanne and I sat down at the table, Jerome, I believe, was seated on the bench and Jerome began explaining that basically what he had said to me earlier about having sex with the girl in the back yard and after the sex act, he had gone out on the street and allegedly the girl had followed him out there.

A Yas, Ma'am.

MR. CASSIDY: Objection, please.

THE COURT: The objection is usstained, Ms. Placek. I don't understand the relevance. The Officer didn't say he worked 36 hours.

Put another question.

MS. PLACEK: Q Let me sk you this, Officer. How long, in total, did you speak to the Defendant?

I began, I believe, my initial conversation with Jerome about 4:15. It wasn't a straight conversation as I testified, I got him food and there was smalltalk, there was no talk on the case in, I would have to guess, maybe a half an hour, maybe 45 minutes, I don't know.

In total?

I don't know, Ma'am, I am just guessing.

And when you spoke to him for a Q half an hour or 45 minutes in total that night, am I correct in saying that to the best of your knowledge, he didn't know, I believe, the other Chicago Police Office: you referred to as Joanne Ryan --

Could I clarify, ask you a question, Α When you are saying in total, I am confused

| 8 | Q Then after the 4:15 conversation, which |
| 9 | was approximately 45 minutes, when did you next see |
| 10 | him? |
| 11 | A As I stated, I believe it was shortly |

| 13 | Q And at 7:00 p.m., do you know where the |
| 14 | Defendant was? |
| 15 | |

- A Yes, Ma'am.
- And while you were watching the room, let me ask you this.

The Defendant wasn't handcuffed at this time, was he?

- A No, he was not.
- Q How long did you speak to the Defendant at 7:00 o'clock concerning this case?
 - A I would have to guess maybe 15, 20 minutes.
- Q After that, did you have an occasion to speak to the Defendant about this case again?
 - A Yes, Ma'am.
 - Q When did you next speak to the Defendant?
- A Next time was when I brought Joanne Ryan in, which I think it was some, it was after 8:00, maybe closer to 8:30.
- Now, do you know how long the Defendant had been at the station?
 - A Honestly, Malam, I do not.
- Did you ask any of your brother officers, bafors you started speaking to the Defendant, how long

| 2 | A No, Ma'am, I did not. |

| 11 | 7:00 o'clock conversation that you spoke to the |
| 12 | Defendant alone? |
| 13 | A That is correct, Ma'am. |
| 14 | Q And am I also correct in assuming |
| 15 | that that is when he said I want to speak to John, |
| 16 | not Steve, correct? |
| 17 | A Ye called me John, yes. |
| 18 | Q Well, John is your name, correct? |
| 19 | A Yes, it is. |
| 20 | Q And Steve is your partner's name, right? |
| 22 | A Yes, it is. |
| 23 | Q And he didn't want to speak in front of |

A I don't know if he did or not, Ma'am.

Well, you were in there when -- and I am speaking about the little after 8:00 conversation when she entered the room, did you introduce her to the Defendant?

A Yes, I did.

Q Thank you.

Now, at that particular time, he ejected you and wanted to speak to Joanne Ryan?

A I don't think he ejected me.

Q Let me ask you this.

Did he ask you to leave the room and ask to speak to Joanne alone?

A No.

- A No, Ma'am, I was not.
- And let's go one step further.

I take it that that typewritten conversation that you did to memorialize this was done some time after the conversation, correct?

- Approximately how long after the conversation?

A I believe the report was done about four days after my conversation with Jerome.

Q Well, Officer, did you look at those notes in preparation for your testimony today?

A No, Ma'am, I did not.

Q Well, let me ask you this.

Officer, would it be correct in saying that you summarized, even to give you the benefit of the doubt -- Strike that. I will withdraw that, Judge, that statement.

Officer, am I correct in assuming that at best, you summarized the 45 minute conversation in less than a page of hand-written notes, correct?

Isn't it correct that you were actually writing in your notebook when you were speaking to jarome and filled out these G.P. notes or the General Progress Notes at a later time?

Only when we are talking about the incident.

Let's go one step further.

Officer, after you summarised in the G.P. notes the 45 minute conversation with Jaroma, did you ever show those notes to Jarome and ask him to sign it to say if that is a true representation of the summary?

Some characterization has to be put on and the objection is overruled.

MS. PLACEK: Q Officer, did you ever show the summary of those notes to Jerome and, in fact, make sure that you got it right?

A No, Ma'am.

Q Thank you.

Now, Officer, calling your attention, again, to the 7:00 o'clock conversation, the 15 minute conversation you had with Jerome --

A Yas, Ma'am.

Q Officer, did you also write notes on that conversation?

A I took some notes, yes, Ma'am.

Q When you say "some notes," was that like procedure with you deciding what was going down on paper and without Jerome knowing what notes you took?

A I don't -- Could you repeat the question?

Q Surely, Officer.

| 15 | Q Well, let me ask you this. |

| 22 | This is not a verbatim statement of |

| 24 | A That is correct, Ma'am. |
| | Q And likewise, am I correct in assuming that, | in fact, you never showed that note to Jerome and asked him to sign it to see if you had, in fact, accurately used the right words to summarize?

MR. CASSIDY: Argumentative.

THE COURT: Overruled,

THE WITNESS: No, Ma'am.

MS. PLACEK: No, am incorrect or no, you never showed it to him?

I never showed it to him.

Would it be correct in saying that the two processes, that is the 45 minute and the 15 minute conversation that you had with Jerome covered less than two pages of notes?

I have to agree with you, I haven't seen the notes in a long time, I don't recall exactly how much space they covered.

As a matter of fact, would it be correct in saying that not only that, but you abbreviated words on this note-taking procedure, corract?

THE COURT: Sustained.

MS. PLACEK: Officer, as you stated, abbreviations are only known to you, is that correct?

A I think any intelligent person looking at the notes could decipher what I am trying to say.

MS. PLACEK: Motion to strike as non-responsive.

THE COURT: Overruled.

MS. PLACEK: Q Officer, when you say that, you, at that time, considered Jerome an intelligent person, didn't you?

A Yes, Ma'am.

C And, so -- But yet you never gave him the right to, in fact, look at those notes and okay them to make sure that you got everything down right, correct?

MR. CASSIDY: Objection, argumentative.

| 8 | A That is correct, Ma'am. |

Now, Officer, am I correct in assuming that it was not until the 13th that you saw down and wrote your formal report, memorializing this conversation, correct?

A Yes, Ma'am.

And am I also correct in assuming that since Jerome was no longer -- Well, may I withdraw and rephrase, Judge?

Am I correct in saying that this conversation that you had with Jerome, that you wrote in, or excuse me, typed in your formal report, was, in fact, a summarization of the summary that was contained on the notes?

- A No, Ma'am.
- Q Well, Officer, lat me ask you this.

As stated before, you stated that, in fact, you took, typed on the 13th from the notes that you took, correct?

- A Could you repeat that question, please?
- As you stated before, Officer, am I correct in assuming that you based, typed upon, in fact, the notes you took when you were speaking to Jeroma?

She then told him not to tell anybody that she was with him, with her, or anything was happening.

She then took off her, pulled down her pants, he said she had one leg out of her pants and pulled down her underwear and pulled her shirt off her head.

He said that he removed his -- dropped his shorts and undershorts to below his knee and that he, again, had sex with her, entering her vaginally from the rear and he told her that he -- he told me that she had pulled the shirt up over her head and she had something else, he didn't know if it was her top or if it was just -- just what it was, because he said it was very dark in there, but she had used something to put around her mouth in sort of a gag fashion and she wanted him to hold it and to pull on it and to ride her like a horse.

1 Sheet 1 line 9. Jerome Hendricks. THE CLERK: 2 MR. HASKINS: Your Honor, on this particular 3 case, I filed an Amended Motion to Dismiss this 4 morning. You can see my copy if you want. 5 Your Honor, this case you litigated -- actually February 24th, 1994, Defendant 6 7 filed a pro se petition which the trial court summarily 8 dismissed on March 24, 1994. For that reason, there is 9 no collateral relief. Here is the opinion. It just 10 came back. He filed this like three weeks after you 11 denied the first one. 12 MS. SLOCUM: Your Honor, this is my case. I'm 13 asking that our office be granted permission to 14 withdraw. The PC date that was filed April 19th is identical. In fact, I think it's a Xerox copy of the 15 one that was filed February 24th which was dismissed, 16 17 and as Mr. Haskins said, the dismissal was affirmed on 18 appeal. 19 THE COURT: I am going to grant the State's Motion to Dismiss. I'm just wondering in my mind why I 20 21 didn't summarily dismiss this. 22 MR. HASKINS: I think you did. 23 THE COURT: No. Then it was refiled, was it 24 not?

1 MS. SLOCUM: On April 19th. MR. HASKINS: It was filed and dismissed within 2 six weeks. It was filed February 24th, and it was 3 denied March 21st. So it was three weeks. 4 5 THE COURT: Then was another one filed? б MR. HASKINS: Yeah, the same one. That's the 7 one in front of you now. 8 THE COURT: That's why I'm wondering why I didn't dismiss the second one. I'm aware I summarily 9 dismissed the first one and that it went up to the 10 Appellate Court and came back affirmed. I just thought 11 maybe there might have been some variance or difference 12 that required it to go forward. 13 14 Motion State to dismiss is allowed. 15 Counsel, have you complied with Rule 16 609. MS. SLOCUM: Your Honor, my position is it's not 17 a valid petition to begin with. It's an exact Xerox 18 copy of the one that was dismissed. 19 20 THE COURT: So be it. 21 (WHICH WERE ALL THE PROCEEDINGS HAD) 22 23 24
